EAWT 8-9 FEBRUARY 2018
IRCAD, STRASBOURG
Wound healing technology in Europe

▷ Thursday, February 8 : Theorical presentation on Wound healing technology in Europe

08.30	Introduction IRCAD, Forewords
09.00	What is new on wound assessment technology? T. Wild
09.20	What is new on surgical technology in wounds? L. Téot
09.40	What is new on wound debridement? O. Castana
10.00	Coffee break
10.30	What is new on peri wound skin management and skin protection, F. Meuleneire
10.50	What is new on antiseptics and wounds? R. Dondelinger
11.10	What is new on NPT? L. Téot
11.30	What is new on technology and diabetic foot management? T. Wild
11.50	Minimising pain at wound dressing-related procedures, O. Kiskira
12.10	Lunch break
14.00	What is new on local standard of care in DFU ? D. Saiche (en français)
14.20	Lipostructure and wound healing, A. Dompmartin
14.40	What is new on pressure ulcer prevention and treatment? N. Faucher (en français)
15.00	What is new on vascular assessment, leg ulcer compression? S. Meaume
15.20	Skin tears : the art of effective local treatment, F. Meuleneire
15.40	Coffee break
16.10	What is new on dressings? S. Meaume
16.30	What is new on telemedecine? L. Téot
16.50	What is new on skin substitute? E. Middelkoop
17.10	What is new on scar management? M. Masanovic (en français)

▷ Friday, February 9 : Parrallel workshops on operative and non invasive technologies

08.00-17.00 (ateliers en français)

Operative: debridement, biopsy, NPWT, dermal substitutes, skin grafts, flaps, cellutome, pH measurement

Non invasive: wound assessment and vascular assessment, dressings, leg ulcer compression (short stretch, stocking), leg ulcer compression multilayer bandaging, intermittent pneumatic compression, off-loading in diabetic foot ulcers, pressure relieving supports

Registration and information
Association Vulnus AWT
http://awt.vulnus.org
marisa.villebrun@idea-services.fr